Notes

Please make sure you have checked the appropriate box in Section VI and signed your name in Section VIII.

Mail the completed form to: Adventurer Ministries, (Mail to your conference Adventurer Director.)

Section VI deals with unlawful conduct. This section has been included to protect the Adventurer Club members from abuse and protect the Seventh-day Adventist church organization from recommending any staff member who has a problem in this area.

If the conference Adventurer director recommends the applicant, information in Sections I through V will be copied and sent to the local Adventurer Club for the director to use in determining staff qualification. If the applicant has not been approved, none of the information will be forwarded.

When a local club director requests a recommendation from the conference Adventurer director, he/she may not release any specifics and may respond only with 'recommended', 'not recommended', or 'recommended with conditions noted'.

All information on this application will become a permanent record and should include updates. In the event of accusations against the applicant, opportunity should be given for response by the accused. This response also becomes a part of the record.

We regret having to include a section on unlawful conduct, however, understanding the epidemic proportions of this problem, it becomes necessary to create a data base to protect child, parents, Adventurer staff and the church.

Adventurer Games

Objective

1. Learn and play SIMON SAYS.
2. Watch and play FOLLOW THE LEADER.
3. Listen and play IN THE RIVER - ON THE BANK.
4. Do three group marching activities.

The goal is to help the Adventurer to listen and obey simple commands quickly, to learn left from right, to execute “left face” and “right face”, to start together on the command “forward march” and stop together on the command “Adventurers halt”, to instill in each Adventurer that march is fun, to prepare each Adventurer for the basics of “drill and marching” that will be taught in Pathfinders, and to build esprit de corps (working together-group spirit).

Simon Says

Leader calls out commands with Adventurer answering only commands beginning with “Simon Says”, i.e., “Simon says, left face; Simon says, right face, Simon says, jump up”, etc. Anyone who moves on a command not prefaced by “Simon Says” is out (to wait on the sidelines until the game is over). Leader continues to call commands until only one or two are left and then, time permitting, play the game again so all will be given another chance to listen for Simon Says.

Follow the Leader

Adventurer copies exactly what the leader does or says, i.e., leader hops on right foot ... leader skips ... leader walks around one or two chairs ... leader says halt ... leader says forward march. Adventurer youth enjoy being “leader” and are quite creative.

In the River - On the Bank

Adventurers line up along a rope or a line on the floor. One side is the bank and the other side the river. Leader calls “in the river”, and all jump on the river side of the line. Leader calls “on the bank” and everyone jumps back. Confusion makes for fun when the leader calls the same command twice in a row. Jumpers are out when they jump the wrong way on a command. Calls should be made loudly, distinctly, and rapidly.

Group March

Two leaders and two rows of Adventurers “march” in patterns. All start out on the left foot with the leader calling out “left, left” from time to time. After the group has made several patterns, following the leaders, the leaders stop and join hands above their heads to form an arch. As each couple goes through the arch, they also stop and join hands to form an arch. After everyone has gone through the arch, the leaders go through and continue to march with everyone following. Additional patterns include the cross-over (a figure eight), a square, diagonal, serpentine, and flank.

Dear Adventurer Parent,

On (day), (date) at (time) we will present a special ceremony of blessing for the families and children who are a part of our Adventurer Club. At the ceremony will have the opportunity to reaffirm to your Adventurer child(ren) your love and commitment to them, and to affirm them for the special contributions which they have brought to your family.

As you can see from the enclosed program, a short talk will be given about the meaning of the family blessing in Scripture, then parents and children will read some scripture verses aloud together. Next there will be a time for you, as parents, to tell your Adventurer child(ren) about the special attributes which you especially appreciate in them.

Please take some time to come prepared to this very special ceremony by:

- Making a list of three or four things you especially appreciate in your child and writing them down in the form of a letter on special stationery, and
- At the bottom of your letter draw or glue a picture of an object or animal which represents, for you, the special qualities of your child. (For example, you may choose a kitten to represent that your child is playful and curious and likes to learn.)

In addition to this special letter, bring your Bibles and have Adventurers in their dress uniforms. We will meet at (when) in the (where) to prepare for the ceremony. We look forward to being part of this blessing service with you.

Sincerely,

Your friend and club director,

“The Tradition of Blessing” Talk

Readings from Scripture

Parents: “These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.”—Deuteronomy 6:6-7

Adventurers: “Children, honor your parents in the Lord, for this is right. ‘Honor your father and mother’—which is the first commandment with a promise—that it may go well with you and that you may enjoy long life on the earth.”—Ephesians 6:1-3

Affirmation of Special Attributes

Family Pledge

Adventurers, you are growing to be such fine young boys and girls! Now that you are old enough to understand, your parents want you to know about the blessings they want to give you with God’s help.

Every person needs to know that they are loved. When God gave you to your parents, He gave them a very special person to love for the rest of their lives.

 (child’s name) , I pledge to you the blessing of my love, always, no matter what.

In order to grow, every person needs food and shelter. Every person needs to be taught how to live in a happy loving way.

 (child’s name) , I pledge to you the blessing of my help, in every way I can give it, so you can grow strong in Jesus.

Every child makes mistakes and needs to know that they are forgiven. Every parent makes mistakes too.

 (child’s name) , I pledge to you the blessing of forgiveness when you make mistakes and apologies when I make mistakes.

Adventurers, you are a very important part of your family. You have the power to help make your family a happy place or a sad place. Do you pledge to do your part to make your family a happy family?

We do.

Song of Blessing

Family, we are family,
Jesus, He is our God.
And I’m so glad He’s brought us all together.
I’m so glad that the Father is our God.

We share good times together.
We share the bad times, too.
And we all know our family always loves us.
That’s because we were all first loved by You.
